Senior portraits on campus next week

BY ALLY LOYNES
Rumbler Staffer

Photo Texas will be on campus for senior portraits Friday and Saturday, Oct. 23-24 and Nov. 5-7 in the lecture hall from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Portraits taken on campus are free, although students can pay a session fee to take additional pictures other than the tux and drape picture for the yearbook. Only pictures taken by Photo Texas will be used in the Replay.

Seniors should sign up outside 6203 starting the Monday of the pictures for a senior portrait time.

Girls should wear or bring a spaghetti strap top and guys a white T-shirt for ease with the tux and drapes. Additional clothes can be brought for seniors taking extra pictures on different backgrounds.

Seniors who prefer to take pictures at the studio should call Photo Texas at 512-617-7780. Studio appointments start at $20. All senior portraits must be taken by Nov. 7 to be in the yearbook.

FRIDAY NIGHT FRIGHTS

Annual Trunk or Treat set for Oct. 30

Ghosts and goblins, superheroes and goddesses, monsters and princesses will all descend on the parking lot next Friday.

Hosted by Student Council, the annual Trunk or Treat event provides a safe place for children to trick or treat. Clubs, sports and some community members will set up booths or trunks that offer candy, games and prizes.

Each group comes up with their own theme, accessorizing and dressing up in costumes to match. Groups also create simple games for kids to play and often create Halloween or theme-related sets for their booth. Theatre, Royals, cheerleaders and RRADD are all groups participating.

"It was so much fun helping out at Trunk or Treat last year," junior Ashtyn Thomas said. "The kids are great and it was nice to help out the community."

Children from elementary schools and the general community are invited to the annual event. Trunk or Treat will take place in the front school parking lot from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m.

THE Bragging LIST

NEWSPAPER UP FOR NATIONAL AWARD

The Raider Rumbler was recently named a Pacemaker finalist by the National Scholastic Press Association. NSPA selected 59 middle and high school papers from around the nation.

"Considering this is the first time ever we've won, it is more than just exciting," editor Jordan Buie said. "I knew all the tough topics we had covered was going to get us farther than any previous year."

The national award, for the 2014-15 issues, is given to papers that exemplify strong writing, design and coverage.

"We love having a print paper," adviser Kel Lemons said. "The staff feels strongly that the paper should be an integral part of the school community and they were strong advocates for stories they thought affected not just our students but the whole LISD community."

About half of the finalists will be named winners at the JEA/NSPA Fall National High School Journalism Convention in Orlando, Nov. 12-15.

FOUR NAMED TO ALL-DISTRICT CHOIR

Four students made the All-District Choir, Sept. 29 at Vandegrift High School. Seniors Shey Covington, Kiersten Dunn and Audrey Dickerson and junior Ashley Tysor all made the All-District Choir.

"I found out that I made it the morning after auditions and I was very excited because I tried out last year and didn't make it," Tysor said.

The four choir students now move on to the Regional audition at Round Rock High School, Oct. 27.

NATIONAL MERIT SEMIFINALISTS

Benjamin Butler and Connor Doolittle were recently recognized as National Merit Semifinalists. See rhsrumbler.com/ news for a Q&A with the two seniors.
