Newspaper Recieves Royal Treatment

Marissa Macha
Editor-In-Chief

Kayla Rieger

Q: If you could live in a book or movie, which one would it be and why?

A: Oh my god. This is so hard because I want to live in so many. I guess I'd want to live in the Marvel universe so that I could have a chance at being a mutant and having superpowers.

Q: If you could time travel, would you go to the past or the future? Why?

A: I'd go to the future. I'd be too worried about messing up the universe by changing something in the past.

Q: Why did you decide to join newspaper?

A: I thought it would be fun, and you can put any extracurricular activity on a college application.

Hadley Carr

Q: What are you looking forward to most about newspaper?

A: I'm looking forward to the opportunity to write about current events at our school and having my pieces in The Brahma Beat. I've always loved reading it and can't wait to get the first issue and see my name printed inside.

Q: Describe yourself in two sentences or less.

A: I have been extremely opinionated, outgoing, and mature since I was probably three years old. I am defined by my unique personality and very dry sense of humor.

Q: If you had a warning label what would yours say?

A: WARNING: I will tell you exactly what I think the second I think it, whether you want to hear it or not.

Cassidy Lupo

Q: Why did you decide to join newspaper?

A: I decided to join newspaper because I thought it would be fun. I like to write and meet new people.

Q: Describe yourself in two sentences or less.

A: I am crazy, weird and fun. I'm a twin, curly blond-red head and sometimes lazy.

Q: What are you looking forward to most about newspaper?

A: I want to meet new people and make new friends.

Megan Lee

Q: Describe yourself in two sentences or less.

A: I thoroughly enjoy free time when I have nothing to do and nowhere to be, and I naturally integrate lyrics into casual conversation. Out of the countless things the world has to offer, some of my favorites are the rain, languages, Jimmy Fallon, dancing, lavender, vinyl records, dead leaves and my talented, witty friends.

Q: What are you looking forward to most about newspaper?

A: I am looking forward to the opportunity of coming up with the perfect, and hopefully clever, title for a story.

Q: What's your favorite memory of high school?

A: Although I have many, some of my favorites are New Year's Eve, talking around a fire after prom and playing charades with vocabulary words.

Claire Coker

Q: Why did you decide to join newspaper?

A: I decided to join newspaper because I have an enormous love for writing and reading.

Q: How would your best friend describe you?

A: My best friend would describe me as adventurous when supplied with money, ambitious, creative at the most random times, adequately musical, shamelessly sarcastic, a great advice giver and lovable.

Q: What's your favorite song and why?

A: My favorite song varies by the minute, but as of now it is either "Colors" by Halsey or "Prisoner" by the Weeknd. Both of the songs are the type that you can listen to on loop without getting irritated. They are also extremely catchy and have great lyrics.

Sydney Campbell

Q: Describe yourself in two sentences or less.

A: To briefly describe myself, I am a music lover who likes to go on adventures and sleep along with the occasional Netflix session and a good book.

Q: What are you looking forward to most about newspaper?

A: I am looking forward to making memories and getting to publish my writing in newspaper.

Q: What celebrity would you like to meet at Starbucks for a cup of coffee? Why?

A: I'm pretty sure everyone knows that if I could meet one celebrity at a coffee shop, it would be Harry Styles. There are several reasons why, but the main reason is I would love to have just a genuine conversation with this beautiful human being.
