

OUR social NETWORK

photo by R. Lewis

faces of the game

Senior varsity golfer Grayson Jones. View this story on tigertimesonline.com

OCT. 30

CHEER CLINIC

"It's a cheer clinic for 3-year-olds to 8th graders. We teach them cheers, dances, chants, work on jumps and do stunts with them," junior Abby Norton said. "We like to work with them and get them excited."

NOV. 5

ROSEBUDS YOGA

"Yoga is something that we get to do as a group that's really relaxing and fun. We do it as a social gathering, but also as bonding," senior Elizabeth Tullis said. "It's a great break from the stress of school and an activity everyone seems to love."

NOV. 6

PICTURE RETAKES

"If you haven't gotten your picture taken or if you don't like it, you need to make sure you come to picture retakes so you can get in the yearbook," senior Madison Maynard said. "If you aren't in the yearbook did you really go to school here?"

STAY CONNECTED

snapchat: thspublications
instagram: thsstudentmedia
twitter: @thsstudentmedia
facebook: THS Publications

NOV. 7

MISS THS

"It's a scholarship opportunity for girls at Texas High," junior Hannah Hayes said. "It's supposed to be a fun event where we get together and watch the talented girls compete."

NOV. 19

FEAST AND FOLLIES

"[It's] a senior medieval festival celebrating the literature and traditions we studied from this time period," English teacher Anne Fruge said. "[They] can dress up as Canterbury Pilgrims or any medieval character, and we have feasting, music, an art contest, photo booths and more."

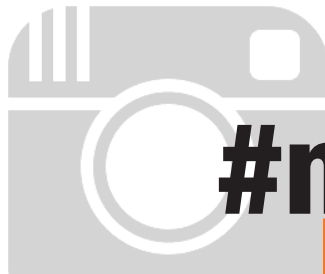

NOV. 19-22

MISTLETOE FAIR

"At Mistletoe Fair I get to dance every year, and I really love going around to all the booths," freshman Sarah Grace Boudreaux said. "It's something my family and I go to every year and gets me into a Christmas mood."

ACT/SAT

ACT dates:	SAT dates:
Dec. 12	Nov. 7
Feb. 6	Dec. 5
April 9	Jan. 23
June 11	March 5
	May 7
	June 4

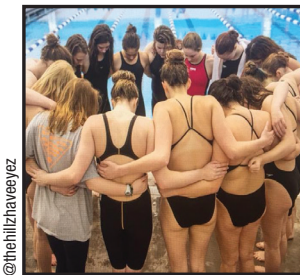

#mybig MOMENT

Post your favorite moments on Instagram with #mybigmoment and tag @thsstudentmedia for a chance to be featured in the newspaper and be in a drawing for a $20 gift card.

@kipwilliams350

@thehillzhaveyez

@will_harrell3

photo by R. Lewis

Anna Catherine Boudreaux, 12

by ELEANOR SCHROEDER
staff writer

On a crisp fall night, bright lights shine down on a crowd of orange. Flowers are held by 13 lucky girls. Butterflies are in those 13 stomachs. Families and friends grab hands as the crowd falls silent as the queen is announced.

Senior Anna Catherine Boudreaux was crowned Homecoming queen at the football game on Oct. 9.

"I was not expecting to win at all," Boudreaux said. "When I heard my name called it didn't seem real. It was just a huge shock."

It took Boudreaux a moment to understand the honor she had just received.

"I was thinking, 'Did they call my name? Oh my goodness,'" Boudreaux said.

"It didn't feel like it was actually happening."

our favorite moment

Being crowned Homecoming queen is an experience that will stay with Boudreaux for the rest of her life.

"I felt so very honored," Boudreaux said. "Texas High is a great school and has amazing people."

@DatJohnnyBoy626

"Star Wars is about to be amazing I'm so hype rn"

@diddlydarn

"My parents try to sneakily feed me eggs like parents sneak vitamins into a 5-year-old's ice cream"

@_Shortman10

"Hit the Quan"

@Ckj98Jones

"Don't stroll in the woods of your enemy is hunting -Chase Watkins"

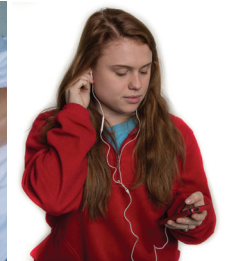

4
Help Wanted
New mentor program aims to increase college readiness

10
I'll Never Forget
Junior learns to grow from grandfather's loss

20
It's A Balancing Act
Sophomore flips between competitive gymnastics, school, social life

in this issue

23 Confessions of a Walking Jukebox

Senior shares experiences of listening to live music

