

photo essay

Metropolitan Moments

From Dallas to New York City, Chicago and Los Angeles, senior Mercer Malakoff has studied photography and captured stories through a variety of portrait photographs. Malakoff uploads various galleries on her photography website, www.mercermalakoff.com.

- 1. Malakoff's friend from City Term, Sam Downey, pictured at the Dallas quarry.
- 2. Malakoff photographed a woman overlooking the city of New York on top of the Waldorf Astoria.
- 3. Malakoff shot this portrait during a summer photography program at University of California at Los Angeles.
- 4. Malakoff photographed Downey during a rainy day at Coney island, New York.
- 5. When at a photography program in Chicago, Malakoff photographed the ferris wheel at the Navy Pier.

To check out more of Malakoff's work, visit her photography website, mercermalakoff.com or scan the QR code.