A Q&A with the newest Mr. McCallum

The Shield: How did you prepare for Mr. McCallum?

Jordan Wolleben: I was rehearsing and I was lip syncing to my favorite song, "Move Along."

TS: What part was the most memorable?

JW: Performing and I did some beat stuff, and I kinda liked that. I was passing out money and lip syncing to "Achy Breaky Heart."

TS: How did it feel to win?

JW: It was unexpected. I didn't expect it; it was incredible. I was for sure the dinosaur thing could have won.

TS: What was your first reaction to winning?

JW: I was shocked. I don't know; it was just incredible.

TS: How do you think your mom felt?

JW: Probably that she was proud. And she was a little bit in tears.

TS: How did that make you feel?

JW: Proud.

TS: Why did you sign up for Mr. McCallum?

JW: Because I thought it would be fun.

TS: What do you think you learned from this experience?

JW: That I can do anything.

TS: What did you think about being called Mr. Hero?

JW: I think it was really awesome because the guys said, "Thanks to you, we are having a prom."

TS: What was your favorite interview question that you got asked?

JW: Where do you see yourself in five years?

TS: What did you say?

JW: Me moving to Florida, being a model at the beach and working at Disney World.
