

June 3, 2015

SPORTS

The Falcon Cry

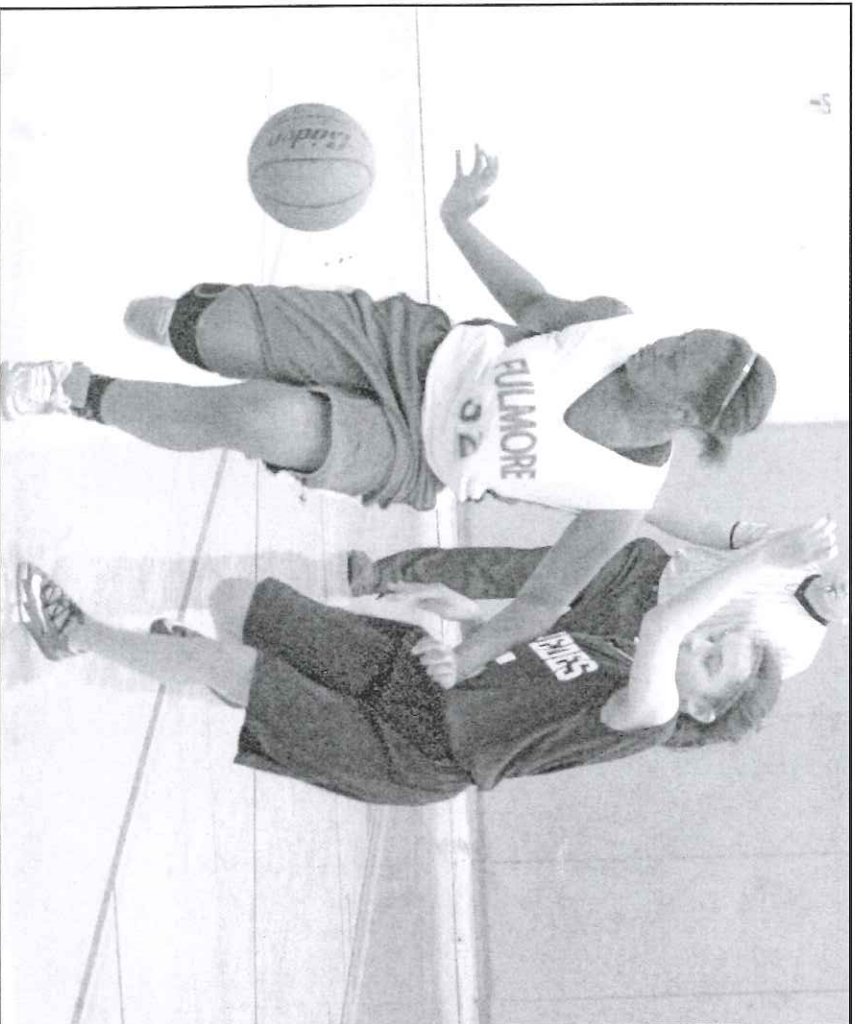

Photo by Alejandro Serna

Keeping a Paredes player away, seventh grader Stephanie Freeman dribbles the ball. The Paredes game was on November 13.

Leg in the air, Juan Carlos Hernandez goes to kick the ball. The Kealing game was on December 13.

Highlights of fall semester sports

The fall semester sports were basketball, soccer, tennis, and track. Student athletes worked hard on their own, practicing, and with their teams, working together. They bonded over wins and losses and made friends. "Soccer has made me stronger, both mentally and physically," Seventh grader Jaeden Sosa said.

Photo by Xander Christou

Photo by Rachael Moon

Waving, eighth Graders Luis Rojas and Adrian Pena walk off the field. This game was against Kealing.

Photo by Adrian Pena

Ball in hand, eighth grader Alejandro Serna prepares to throw the ball to a teammate. This was against St. Francis.

Photo by Adrian Pena

Stretching, seventh grader Angie Coleman waits for track practice to begin. Track had lots of participation, with more than 30 members.