Fabulous Five

"It has truly been an honor leading such an amazing team on and off the field. I could not be more proud of a team and the things that we accomplished together."

-Senior Captain Bailey Nance

"(Being an officer) is a special and gratifying experience that allows me to see the girls and myself learn and grow."

-Senior Lieutenant Callie Fruia

"As a two year lieutenant for the Viewettes, I look back over this journey with a great sense of pride. My hope for all of my girls is for them to become better versions of themselves."

-Senior Lieutenant Carmen Webb

"Leading a team of smart, disciplined girls has been one of my greatest honors and an experience I will never forget."

-Senior Lieutenant Alissa Rash

"Being an officer requires a lot of extra time and effort and is a big responsibility but it's truly an honor to help lead this talented team."

-Junior Lieutenant Alexa Blair
