Cast makes difficult dance fun

Ms. Chelsea Lowden

COULD WE FOXNOT?

With 'The Baltimore' playing in the background, Bernice (Kylie Sledge), 8th, thanks Jim Strain (Madison Talley), 7th, for the dance. "Dancing was my least favorite thing to do because I can't dance," Kylie said. Under the direction of first-year sponsor Chelsea Lowden, the One Act Cast placed 3rd in the UIL competition.

CHILL-LEADERS

Cheering through the cold, Sarah Gautreaux, Weslynn Boatright, Chandee Bachmeyer, and Madalynn Woelfel, 9th, try to keep warm. "All of our hair on our legs were kind of sticking up," Sarah said. Photo by Chelsea Seggern

CHRISTMAS ON PARADE

Marching to the festive beat, Triana Candelas, Alexandria Dollins, 8th, and Hailey Garza, 10th, play along to 'Christmas March'. "I didn't like being on the outside because everybody could see me," Triana said. Photo by Chelsea Seggern

One Act cast performed Bernice Bobs Her Hair, a roaring 20's play about popularity, dancing, and sweet revenge.

HEATED PRACTICE

Acting as Warren McIntyre, Trevor Hegstad, 8th, waits for his cast members to get their lines correct. "I was irritated that people didn't know their lines," he said, "and I was frustrated because it was tremendously hot in there." Trevor earned All-Star Cast Honorable mention.

NHS INDUCTS 12

Kristen Rinderknecht, 12th, lights the leadership candle, one of the four candles that represent the NHS virtues. "I couldn't get my candle to light, and when I did, it blew out right away." For service, NHS hosted blood drives, made Valentines cards for children, collected money for Pennies for Patience, and helped with the Special Olympics.
