"Why is choir important to you?"

"It's a way for me to know that there are other people out there who have the same interests as I do."
-Samantha Zinni, 10

"I use choir to really let out my emotions and to really share with everyone else how I'm feeling."
-Courtney Lorg, 11

"We all work in different classes and then for concerts we all come together and sing what we've learned and it's really cool."
-Savannah Contreras, 10
