

MAKEUP MAYHEM

Eaglettes

"I am a big fan of American Horror Story, so I kind of drew from that. I really liked having the freedom to do whatever with our makeup and outfit – it was fun."

–Abby Nunley, 11

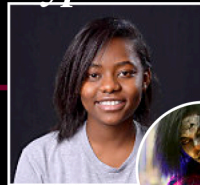

Japanese

"Our theme was Japanese horror urban legends, legends such as Aka Manto, The Okiku Doll, The Slit-Mouthed woman and many others—so we drew from that."

–Kevin Pham, 10

Hypematic

"My makeup was supposed to be a broken doll, we had theater kids help us put it on. My mom didn't like it very much, she said it was too creepy."

–Margaret Wambui, 10

Cheer

"The theme was zombies so we had to act dead. I put as much white paint as I could on my face and black paint around my eyes."

–Payton Steele, 9
