The Color of Sound

The 2014-2015 season was filled with many accomplishments and excitement. The year started off with a new assistant band director Miss Alex Parker. The 2014 marching show was entitled "The Color of Sound." Drum majors this year were senior Trevor Miller, and junior Josh Meek. Countless hours were put into this show by every member of the band after school. The band received a division III at contest ending the marching season. The band ended the semester on a good note, with their christmas concert.

When concert season began the band kicked off the year with confidence preparing for the performance at the UIL concert & sight reading competition. The band performed in Crane, Texas receiving a Division 2 in Concert Contest, and a Division 1 in Sight Reading contest. In February, some of the band members went to Monahans to compete in solo & ensemble.

The Participants were seniors Kaycee Banner, Trevor Miller, David Guevara, and Jim Crowder; Juniors Josh Meek and Jayton Cox; Sophmores Daniel Loughran and Dhalia Butchee; Freshman Nicole Meek, Gaby Chavez, and Chuy Martinez; and eighth grader Andy Guevara. All the participants made a division 1, and went to state in May. The band ended the year with a spring concert.
