

Those 'Lost' Moments ...

Bloomers & Barrel Rolls

Cheerleaders Kaylie Ritter, Ginna Miller, Halle Barkley and Sydney Ritter take this cheer to the next level. The girls performed this stunt at home during the Valley game. "All I can hear is Sydney screaming. "Keep your feet together," Kaylie said.

Cheerleaders remember... all the items ... they forgot for games ...

Not Again!

It's time to cheer, and once again, Sydney Ritter yelled, "Guys I forgot my pom-poms!"

Nearly every game, at least one cheerleader forgot something - whether it was words to cheers, poms, or the trademark white tennis shoes.

"I felt like I was letting down all the other cheerleaders for forgetting my cheer shoes," seventh-grader Ginna Miller said.

More than once, the junior high cheerleaders forgot the words to cheers or started the wrong cheer.

"When I didn't know the words, but I knew the motions, we would stand there and do the motions and giggle until someone knew the words," eighth-grader K'leigh Thornton said.
