

KEEPING ON TRACK

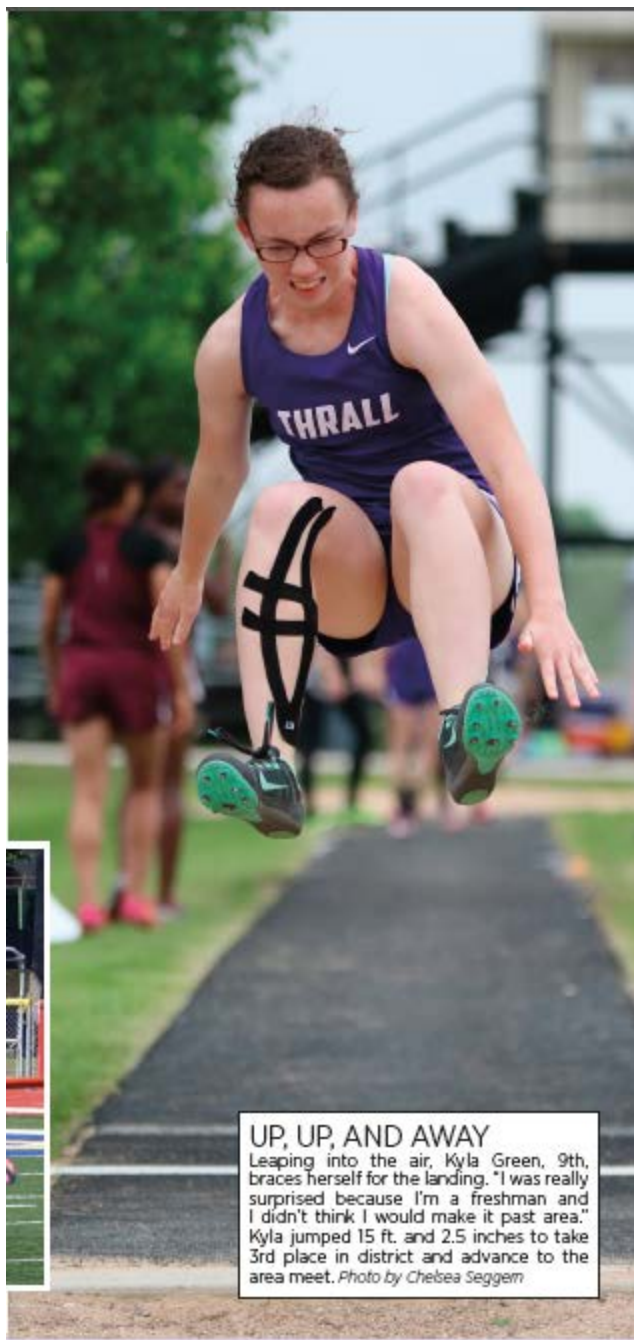

Leading his steer, Legit, into the show ring, Patrick Zieschang, 3rd, looks to the path ahead of him. "We clip them, clean them, and make sure they look their best," Patrick said. Legit placed 2nd in Williamson County and 3rd in Houston. Photo by Chelsea Seggem

EASY AS PI

After having the class measure their circular desserts for pi day, Mrs. Leanne Martin sets up a song for Reid West and Kelin Kincaide, 7th, to sing. "It helped the students remember everything with circles. It was a fun way for the students to learn math," she said.

Photo by Chelsea Seggem

UP, UP, AND AWAY
Leaping into the air, Kyla Green, 9th, braces herself for the landing. "I was really surprised because I'm a freshman and I didn't think I would make it past area." Kyla jumped 15 ft. and 2.5 inches to take 3rd place in district and advance to the area meet. Photo by Chebea Seggem

OFF TO SEE THE WIZARD
Walking across the stage at the Harvest Festival costume contest, Julie Crabb shows off her Dorothy outfit to the audience. "I had an amazing time pretending to be Dorothy because she had a dog," Julie said. Dorothy is her favorite Wizard of OZ character and she earned 1st place in the contest.

Photo by Chelsea Seggern

Big Box Outs

As she works her feet to get around a Thorndale defender, Kelsey Faykus, 12th, gets in position for the rebound. "Boxing out is key. You get the chance for second opportunities and transition points. We had to remember to 'put our butts in their gut'." The Tigerettes were able to take down the Thorndale Lady Bulldogs by 8 points in their own house. Photo by Chelsea Seggern

