

OOPS, I DOODLED IN...

WHERE I DOODLED THE MOST

I get distracted when I'm taking notes so I'm bound to doodle on the side or just get a whole new sheet to doodle on.

Q & A

WHAT IS YOUR GO TO DOODLE?

When I feel the urge to doodle, there is only one majestic sea creature that can free my caged spirit - The Narwhal. Part unicorn, part sea cow, full fledged testosterone and manliness.

-SENIOR MICHAEL ZAPALAC

WHEN DID YOU REALIZE YOU WERE BORN TO DOODLE?

Still to this day, I'm not sure if this was my calling in life but I will find out and embrace this form of artwork. I began my talent in pre-cal when I had no idea what I was doing. (the usual)

-JUNIOR BROOKE BOETTCHER

HAVE YOU EVER HAD A DOODLE DREAM?

I actually have had a doodle dream. I was being chased by Malachi (my childhood doodle buddy) and all of my friends were laughing at me and then, Mrs. Dobias came out in her super suit and saved the day. She has been my hero ever since.

-SENIOR ELYSSA DELGADO

HAVE YOU EVER CONSIDERED BECOMING A PRO-DOODLER?

You know, after my freshman year, I felt I had something strong going for me. My most recent doodle, may have been my big break. I may give up all my other dreams to follow my love for doodling.

-SENIOR PATRICK MARIK

DO YOUR PARENTS KNOW YOU DOODLE?

No, doodling is seen as taboo and is frowned upon. So over the years I have doodled pages upon pages of creations that are all hidden away to only later be discovered and be seen as the holy scriptures of our time.
