

STRONG SHOULDER

During the first act, Arvide Aberrathly (senior Jackson Shoultz) comforts Sarah Brown (senior Audrey Dickerson) after she fails to find people willing to go on her mission trip. "Being in [the] musical was amazing because it combined both singing and acting," Dickerson said. "It was a lot of hard work, but I was doing what I loved to do, and that made every moment worth it."

LUCKY IN LOVE

Sky Masterson (senior Weston Bonnet) meets up with another gambler in the sewers to make a bet during the song "Luck Be A Lady." Bonnet played the male lead in the musical. "My favorite part in the show was when I jumped down from the stairs immediately after socking Jeremy Jewett in the face," Bonnet said. "It was a cool experience and I'm glad I got to be the lead in the musical my senior year."

Cast of Guys and Dolls review their favorite songs from the musical

MARRY THE MAN TODAY

"It wasn't super important to the play, but it's just so entertaining and funny."

-Jesse Taylor, 12

SIT DOWN YOU'RE ROCKIN' THE BOAT

"It's a really fun, exciting and energetic song."

-Kennedy Jones, 10

"It was a full cast song so everyone was on stage and there was choreography, and singing all at once."

-Ashley Tysor, 11

"With the last line being our strongest, there were no barriers between us and I feel like it definitely showed out to the audience."

-Tatiana Ornelas, 11

IF I WERE A BELL

"I feel like it showed a different side of Sarah's character."

-Holly Ainsworth, 11

"It shows a different side of Sarah Brown and reveals that she's up for fun like a normal girl a would be instead of her normal demeanor."

-Sofia Romera, 10
