

"I was honored to received the 'Senior Sweetheart' award this year at formal. I love my team and always will!"

Sydney Parrish ('16)

"My favorite thing about drill team is the bonds that we make. Its like gaining 30 sisters. We are around each other all the time and we get close. Its something special!"

Layla Grogan ('18)

"The sisterhood that drill team brings and all the great girls you meet is my favorite thing about this organization."

Lauren Rogers ('16)

"Being 1st Lt. is one of the greatest blessings. I love leading the team and having their support behind me. Dancing has always been a way for me to express myself when words don't do justice."
Brooke Bevill ('16)

Drill Team Girl, Leaving in a Drill Team World

1. "Some of my favorite memories are made in the stands with my teammates during football games." Anna Pardoe ('17) said. 2. Officers strike a pose in their Barbie box at their competition in Denton, Texas. 3. "My favorite thing about pregame is feeling the energy from the crowd while the team runs out of the tunnel." Madison Chennault ('16) said.

Row One: Hannah Metcalf, Emily Sparkman, Abby Lampin, Brooke Bevill, Andie Harding Row Two: Emily Hughes, Claudia Correa, Karlyee Moore, Breanna Culpepper, Sydney Parrish, Railey Hutchins, Lauren Rogers, Jessica Ulmen, Sarah Cleckler, Hailey Davis, Eva Davis Row Three: Madison Chennault, Jalencia Dunning, Allison Conflitti, Anna Pardoe, Kenzie Hall, Jordan Moss, Breyleigh Arps, MaKenzie Costlow, Chyanne Cornell, Ariana Oldaker, Rylie Moss Row Four: Ja'Niya Mitchell, Shaneka Griggs, Layla Grogan, Skylar Jones, Allison Zitek, Emma Stamps, Meghan Orlowski, Karsen Conser, Maleah Kirk, Tess Hamilton.

High Kicks and maroon lips

Thank You Lord For Each Girl Here

1. Fellow team members lift Emily Sparkman ('17) up into the air in her right split. "The split stunt was something we practiced a lot at practice to perform it perfectly. It was so much fun to learn and do," Sparkman said. 2. Shaneka Griggs ('17) stares into her mirror placed inside of her pin box . Pin boxes are decorated by a rookie's big sister and given to little sisters in the beginning of football season. 3. The team and directors pray the First Lady prayer in a circle as a team before any performance, especially before half-time. They pray the same prayer that has been prayed for years by the teams before. "During your year in pre-drill you learn the prayer and my favorite memory was getting to say it with the team for the first time." Tess Hamilton ('18) said.

Spread By: Anna Pardoe

Sponsored By: First Ladies Booster Club

"I am so privileged to be able to be apart of something I've been dreaming about since I was young. I loved putting on the uniform for the first time because I had imagined it since 2nd grade."

Allison Zitek ('18)

"Whenever I stride on to the field with my team on Friday nights while the fight song is played, I get a rush that is a feeling I'll hold on to forever."

Jordan Moss ('17)

"During a hard day at practice, I tripped over one of our props and at the time it wasn't the best moment but it made for a really good memory that we laugh at now."

Claudia Correa ('16)

"I love competition season because there is nothing better than the feeling when you walk out on the floor and perform routines you've worked so hard on."

Tunayah Stewart ('17)

Dancing Is the Way We Live

Photo by: Claire Herlicks

Channing Evans

Sarah England

Photo by: Claire Herlicks

Photo by: Abigail Killian

1. Every year the team hosts their annual "Little Ladies" clinic where they teach traditions and technique to young girls. "The 'Little Ladies' clinic is a great chance to inspire young girls, and I love having them on the field with us," Meghan Orlewski ('18) said. 2. "I loved experiencing new things on our trip to Disney World. I got to learn an African style of dance while visiting Animal Kingdom," Allison Conflitti ('17) said. 3. Shaneka Griggs ('17) smiles big at Mrs. Norman on the sidelines after half time. 4. "It's such a privilege being Captain. I love being able to teach and learn with them everyday," Abby Lampin ('16) said. 5. Hands shoot up in a jazz hand during the teams 80's inspired homecoming pep rally dance.

Standing on One

Junior officer, Audie Harding ('17), leads by example by smiling big in the stands. "Doing officer strut, dancing on the football field, and watching the games with my team in the stands are memories I'll always treasure." "Getting the position of officer this year was such a dream come true, and I am so grateful for the opportunity to get to help lead this amazing team. I wouldn't want to spend my Friday nights any other way," Harding said.