CAUTION! Page will be trimmed one pica in from this outside bleed line.

A-Z Trinity

Trojan Nation explained in 26 snapshots

A BUILDING
Three stories and five subjects, the main building out of the 11 buildings

photo by Ashley Pestrue

BROTHERHOOD
Bonding through bold personalities the Football team became like family

photo by Alondra Cooper

CHEER
Crowds cheer in the stands as the football team played at Pennington

photo by Rochelle Mitsakos

DETERMINATION
Trying to prove their determination the football team does the Sipi Tau

photo by Hannah Simon

FLAGS
The Trojan Crew ran our battle flag down the field before every game

photo by Ashley Pestrue

MARCH
The Band held an annual March-a-thon through town

photo by Ashley Pestrue

RAMBO
Each team had there tunnel, but no team had our Rambo

photo by Lamont Wilson

SERENADE
Poly Club sang the National Anthem at volleyball games

photo by Nate Haile

TREES
Having an open campus allowed students to enjoy nature

photo by Katelynn Snider

VOLLEYBALL
Players served up amazing action on the court each week

photo by Kaylee Knights

WHO DUN IT?
Theatre put on an audience interactive mystery show

photo by Elaine Roberson

ZIP
Students release paper airplanes that zoom through the sky

photo by Alondra Cooper

A: African Dance Association. Students learn and perform traditional African dances.

B: Beat Bell. Slogan exists for the school's biggest rival.

C: Custodial Tutoring. Members of Spanish National Honor Society help the custodial workers learn English.

D: Diversity Week. The event was dedicated to celebrating the diverse group of students.

E: Encore. Harmony puts on the Spring show every year.

F: Foreign Exchange Students. Students from different parts of the world spend a year learning about American culture.

N: National Honors Society tutoring. Members tutor students after school on Tuesdays.

O: Off Campus Lunch. Seniors leave school during their lunch period before coming back to class.

P: Polynesian Club. Different cultures celebrate Polynesian heritage.

Q: Quicktrip. The gas station donated sandwiches to the athletic groups.

R: Rambo. The football tunnel mascot is also the name of the drum line cadence.

S: Sipi Tau. The football team performs this cultural dance before games.

G: Grimm. The photography teacher/ THS grad that has always been a part of this school.

H: Hall of Flags. The hall in entry of A building the has flags to represent all the nations.

I: International Baccalaureate. Students take this rigourous academic program.

J: Junior World Affairs Council. Members get together to discuss world affairs.

K: Kamin Squared. Two married staff members who work together.

L: Lacrosse. Students from both Trinity and Bell work together to make a team.

M: MAC. Indoor facility for all sports to practice in.

T: Trojan Talk. Advisory class where mentors come and talk about the assigned topic meets monthly.

U: Ukulele. This instrument can be heard around the halls.

V: Venus. The name of this year's marching band show.

W: Whodunit? Theatre club put on a murder mystery show.

X: Xylophone. Percussion students put on a show with different instruments.

Y: Youth and Government. Members learn about the government.

Z: Zero Period. Students have the ability to take an extra class before first period starts.

From beginning to end

Trojans stand out in a bold fashion

BY Kevin Mulume

VIEW. The Trojan Crew flies flags down field. It was something done after every touchdown and at the beginning of the game . "I loved running down the field with my friends especially as the crowd cheered on," Sovereign Sims,11 said. photo by Alondra Cooper

LOUD CROWD

Spirited. The Trojan student section enjoyed a lively presence at football games. They took pride in their representing school spirit. photo by Jakob Potts

After beating the number one team in the nation, De La Salle, Trojan football moved from number 69 in the nation up to number 14 and as a result De La Salle moved from 1 to 15.

14 ELEVEN

Eleven Pep-Rallies all with different themes and a new event at each. The student body covered the entire alphabet with costumes,chants and their creativity.

100

"I one hundred percent believe that our school spirit is welcoming because we have the best student section also I would put it up against any school in the nation," -Hayden Cole,12 said.

Hayden Cole. photo by Hannah Simon

Jordan Sims. photo by Ashley Pestrue

CAUTION! Page will be trimmed one pica in from this outside bleed line.