

SPOOKY STRINGS AND SCARY THINGS

[Orchestra Halloween party]

- 1. LIKEAFAMILY On Nov. 6 a group of orchestra students show off their costumes at the fall party. Having these socials let the students create lasting friendships and better harmonies.
- 2. BANANASFORBANANAS Juniors NATHALIE PENT and EMILY CHUNG show their Despicable Me themed costumes. Both Emily and Nathalie had a lot of fun at the party and enjoyed the activities and games.
- 4. TIMEFORDESSERT Junior JEFFREY LIEW gets a pie to the face during one of the many fun activities at the orchestra fall party. Jeffrey is an officer so he arrived early to help set up the games and activities. "It was a great opportunity to bond with other orchestra members outside of the classroom," Jeffrey said.
- 5. FAMILYFUN Sophomore ANGELINA KIM prepares to get pied in the face on Nov. 6. Angelina enjoyed the party because she was able to hang out with people who were like her family.
- 6. FUNANDGAMES At the party, freshman MEGHAN LINN and sophomore KYLE MONK walk around in their costumes, Kyle dressing as the baby sumo wrestler and Megan as the zombie girl. At the party, they played games such as ring toss, beanbag toss, pumpkin carving and dart throwing to win candy.
- 7. HORSINGAROUND Junior BENJAMIN CANTRELL laughs after he got a pie to the face. Ben went to the party dressed as a farmer but he wore a horse mask to add a little comedy to the costume.
- 8. AGREATTIME Senior SAVANNAH GILLIAM and junior KATHRYN JAEGER COBOS show off their Halloween spirit. Savannah had a lot of fun dressing as a "creepy doll" and she had a great time being with her friends and fellow orchestra members.
- 9. BROKECOLLEGESTUDENT At the orchestra fall party, senior PHOEBE KOZAK shows off her "broke college student" costume. Phoebe decided to go dressed as that because she finds humor in the unfortunate reality that may soon fall upon the graduating class. All photos by Chantal Canales

Q&A: What's the best part of fall?

"Halloween is my favorite holiday. You can dress up as whoever for one night, and get candy."

WHAT'S YOUR FAVORITE HALLOWEEN MOVIE?

LIGHTS, CAMERA, ACTION inaugural talent show

EXPLORINGHERTALENT Junior KIONA WEEKS plays guitar and sings alongside her group. Along with the guitar, Kiona also knew how to play the ukulele, she did not pursue singing until her freshmen year but she hoped to make a career out of it in the future. "It was a great experience for me because it helped me to know how it feels to perform, what I'm comfortable with, and get a feel for what I want to do as an artist," Kiona said. Photo by Samantha Sowa

ROCKYOURSOCKSOFF Junior NICHOLAS BLACK showing off his guitar skills. In the talent show Nicholas performed a guitar solo, he's been playing for seven years and saw the chance to play for his peers. "Being with the other acts was great, getting to bond and experience friendships with people with the same passion for music as me was really interesting," Nicholas said. Photo by Samantha Sowa

FACEYOURFEARS Performing a solo, senior REID POFFENBARGER plays the drums in the spotlight. At the talent show Reid also performed with a group and outside of school Reid is in a band, he wanted to try something new his senior year and saw the talent show as an great opportunity. "I was nervous at first because stage fright is my biggest fear, which is ironic considering I play with my band at least monthly," Reid said. Photo by Samantha Sowa

"I got to meet a lot of cool people actually, there was a lot of bonding behind the scenes that helped me make new friends."
