BOWIE VS. LAKE TRAVIS

"It was senior night and it was really special to play and win for our seniors and all the the parents," junior Rachel Lufschanowski said.

HOW DID YOU FEEL ABOUT THE LAKE TRAVIS GAME?

"We showed discipline and team chemistry. It was really one of our best games," senior Emma Disher said.

WHAT WAS IT LIKE BEATING LAKE TRAVIS?

"IT WAS AN EMOTIONAL GAME BECAUSE IT WAS OUR LAST HOME GAME."

Elise Foradory, 11

WHAT MADE THIS WIN SO SATISFYING? "Yeah, it was the second to last game we had in our district, but it was also the senior's last home game. That's what made it really worth it. It was kind of like a rivalry because they're a tough competitor, but a lot of us actually know each other, so it wasn't too hateful," Foradory said. | PHOTO ABIGAIL POTTER

"WE LISTEN TO MUSIC TO GET EXCITED, THEN WE WIN."

Rachel Lufschanowski, 11

HOW DO YOUR TEAMMATES SUPPORT EACH OTHER IN ORDER TO ENCOURAGE A WIN? "We are they most supportive team ever, and we really love each other. We say our individual and team goals, and visualize before the game what we will need to do to win," Lufschanowski said. | PHOTO BY ABIGAIL POTTER

"THE LAKE TRAVIS GAME WAS INTENSE."

Savannah Ralph, 11

WHAT WAS YOUR BIGGEST MOTIVATION TO WIN THIS GAME? "We went into that game coming out of a loss, and I was motivated to make a statement that we were a team to beat. I was really confident in that game, the nerves settled quickly, and I played poised and collected," Ralph said. | PHOTO BY ABIGAIL POTTER

COACH'S CORNER

WHAT MADE YOU WANT TO COACH BASKETBALL? "It wasn't until I was playing in college that I realized it was what I wanted to do. I worked some camps coaching basketball and I really enjoyed it. I realized I truly loved the game, and my desire was to coach high school girls. I do not regret choosing this as my career at all."
