

The 8 Rules of Band \

>> BE ON TIME

“I try my best not to be late to band because I hate to miss anything. Also, if you're having a lot of band tardies, it begins to affect your call average and that is not good.”

-Hannah Villanueva<sup>10</sup>

>> ALWAYS BE PREPARED

“Being prepared helps tremendously with band, practicing your music and knowing your fingering always helps you when you pass your music off to others.”

-Kelsey Weidner<sup>11</sup>

>> LEARN YOUR MUSIC

“It is easy for me to memorize my music, because we play it so many times in rehearsal, it becomes easy for me to memorize it.”

-Macy Isbell<sup>11</sup>

>> MAKE IT BACK BY 3RD QUARTER

“I manage to make it back by third quarter, because I watch the clock while I go to the concession stand, and when the timer gets to about two minutes, I head back to the stands.”

-Laney Tilton<sup>10</sup>

>> STAY ELIGIBLE

“I manage to stay eligible, because I work hard in all of my classes. I also check my grades every day, and I always ask questions during class.”

-Destiny Buffin<sup>11</sup>

>> BRING YOUR SHOES

“How I managed to lose my shoes is when I was getting dressed on the band trailer and I went back to my uniform bag, to get my shoes, and they were gone. Who would have thought that someone would take your shoes.”

-Logan Mohr<sup>9</sup>

>> BE IN STEP

“It is easy to know when you are in step. When you are not in step it just feels weird, so then you must get back in step.”

-Travis Daniels<sup>10</sup>

>> CARE FOR YOUR INSTRUMENT

“I carefully take my clarinet apart and put it together very gently. I keep my reeds in the cases they come in so they last for a very long time.”

-Taylor Hughes<sup>11</sup>
