The family spent most of their trip enjoying the rides at Disneyland in Anaheim, California. The park was given a make over with the theme as the newest Star Wars movie premiere. Carter, Cade and Collin Wheat spent 5 days of their Christmas vacation watching Star Wars and riding different rides that promoted the movie. "Disneyland was my favorite," Carter said. "Especially Tomorrowland which was decked out in Star Wars."

Experiencing the Force

Wheat family spends Christmas at Disneyland

Entering the theater was a feeling like no other. Popcorn in their laps, ice cold cokes at their sides, and being surrounded by many other fans was an unforgettable experience for one specific family.

As part of their Christmas vacation, Carter Wheat [11], Cade Wheat [9] and Collin Wheat [3] were given the gift of a lifetime. After waiting all year, the night of December 18, 2015 couldn't come quick enough. Standing in line at the Orange County, California AMC Movie Theater didn't seem so bad since they were waiting for the latest installment of their favorite series.

"I bought the tickets on October 19, the first day they went on sale," mother Charlie Kennington said. "I planned to begin our Christmas vacation with the new Star Wars movie. We were then going to go to Disneyland's 60th Anniversary where they were having part of the park as "Season of the Force" for the new movie."

Anxiously waiting, the line began to inch forward.

"It seemed like the line would never end," Carter said. "The wait was worth it as we piled in the packed theatre to see the movie."

This movie truly brought everything; old characters mixed with the new directing, amazing special effects and all-around great family movie.

Star Wars is and forever will be their favorite movie franchise. They are already looking forward to the next movie.

"I went down to my dad's house. We had cake plus all the Christmas food. Being with my family is really fun because I don't get to see them as much." Genesis Cox [9]

"I like Christmas because I get a lot of prizes and food. My favorite part is making gingerbread houses." Joseph Johnson [3]

Ice Skating & Friends StuCo has a destination Christmas party

Justice Davis [9], Gunner Guida [12], Brittney Shroeder [12] and Kelsey McFall [12] pose in front of the Marshall Courthouse while ice skating. The student council members went ice skating, December 17 to celebrate for their Christmas party.

Maddie Thomsett [12], Emma Wayt [9] and Grant Tornberg [9] enjoy the lights and music as they celebrate the Christmas season together. The students went to the Marshall Courthouse where they had a ice skating rink set up. The school funded the trip for the students.
