

Play Hard

8th grade volleyball struggles against Cedar Valley, come close but don't win.

Music blasted in the locker room as the 8th grade volleyball teams prepared to go up against Cedar Valley, one of their biggest rivals on September 24 at Cedar Valley.

"Before the game, I was kind of nervous because we heard that they were really good," Katie Hicks (8) said.

During the first game the B team came up short and lost by 8 points.

"My best moment during that game was when I got a really good save," Hicks said. "The worst was when we lost."

However, they turned it around in the second game and won 25-22, causing them to play a third game.

"It was awesome when

B-Team was winning and everyone was hype," Ashley Anderson (8) said.

Unfortunately, the team lost the third game as well.

"During the game I felt really mad because we were losing bad and afterward I was upset that we lost," Hicks said.

A team players were also apprehensive about the game. Anderson said she felt really nervous before the game and that she needed to play her best.

"I was aggressive during the game," Natalie Janda said.

Both games were close but A team couldn't pull out a win.

"It was a really intense and hard game," Anderson said.
