

...ing her diploma, Rebecca Thorpe<sup>12</sup> exits the stage at the commencement ceremony May 27. "It was really weird getting my diploma because it didn't feel real, but I know it's an experience I'll never get again so it's something I will always cherish," Layton Gully<sup>12</sup> said. Seventy-six seniors graduated at the Junell Center.

Kennedy King<sup>5</sup> gets sprayed by water during the A.R. carnival color run. "My favorite part of the carnival was climbing the rock wall," Kennedy King<sup>5</sup> said. "It was kind of scary but after I did it the first time I wasn't scared anymore and it ended up being a lot of fun." The carnival is a reward party for students who have participated in A.R. during the year.
