It's that time again...
Fiesta!

Whether it's getting food from the food trucks, winning a fish, or spraying friends with invisible ink, the annual Saint Mary's Hall Fiesta carnival has something for everyone. Students from Montessori to Form 12 have something to look forward to each year. For the Lower School students, it might be winning a ton of prizes at games like basketball or go fish. For the Middle Schoolers, it might be dunking a teacher in the dunk tank or buying delicious baked goods at El Mercado. For Upper Schoolers, it might be getting those necessary campus service hours. Fiesta is always a fun time here at SMH. It is a Saint Mary's Hall tradition that will be enjoyed for years to come.

Bubble Trouble! // Amruta Patel (2) throws bubbles in the air at one of the most popular SMH Fiesta activities: The Bubble Pit. The bubble pit took a while to start up this year, but that isn't stopping dedicated students looking for some sun.

Lauren Grazioli (9) shows off her newly-bought cactus to her friends that are brave enough to touch it.

Confetti Fun // With festive rainbow confetti on her head, Abi Sorensen (2) hands her tickets to the booth worker.

Hair Care // Marian Hill (12) uses hair spray paint to give Nicolas Estevez-Breton (5) a fiery red look.

Top: Ethan Walsh (5) prepares to crack a cascarone on his friend's head. Mr. McCrary holds on as he waits to be dunked by his SMH athletes. Bottom: Gavin Peterson (2) chases Erin Garcia (2) with the oh-so-popular invisible ink. Students dig for prizes in the treasure chest.
