

Eagle Take Down

In the first game of the season, Tanner Landes, 9th, Dylan Barrington, 10th, and Noah Bucek, 12th work together to tackle a Bruceville-Eddy Eagle. "It was pretty good for our first game," said Dylan. "Their defense was tough, but our offense was better." The Tigers fought hard but came up one point short losing to Bruceville-Eddy, 7-8. Photo by Emily Price

Kable Rowland, 9th

Casey Carter, 10th

JV Tiger Defense

Jeremy Cain, 9th

Alexis Solis, 9th

Nathan Miranda, 9th

Landrie Waid, 9th

JV T

worth the fight.

Tanner Landes, 9th
Receiver/Safety

"The Thorndale game was the hardest because we wanted to beat them really bad and finally get the victory we've wanted for years."

Claire Seigmund, 9th
Middle Blocker

"I was used to playing with my old teammates so I had to work hard to get to know my new teammates and connect with them."

Ethan De La Cruz, 9th
Center

"It's difficult to be in this position because you have to get the snap back to the quarterback and still have to block at the same time."

Brooke Behrendt, 11th
Libero

"The hardest game this season was Milano because they were our toughest competition, but we ended up beating them despite having a rough start."

Kaitlyn Johnson, 10th
Middle Blocker

"I've had to work to improve my hitting skills and learning how to snap my wrist correctly and put more strength into volleyball."

Peyton Ringling, 10th
Center

"I really fought hard to get my right blocks and square up my defender because everyone was bigger than me."

Preparing For the Kill

During warm-up, Ashley Porter, 10th, hits a quick set ball from the middle. "I get to hit a lot since I'm the middle blocker, and I love having a variety of hits to choose from. I like when I get a solid hit and the varsity cheers us on." With the varsity's support at all the games, the JV team went on to be undefeated in district play.

Photo by Chelsea Seggern

Garrett Rathburn, 9th

1. On the sidelines, Noah Bucek, 12th, gets a coach to help him stretch his leg. 2. During warm-up, Alex Dollins, 9th, gives a nice high set to her outside hitter. 3. Madalynn Woelfel, 10th, serves up an ace against the Granger Lions. 4. Before the snap, Leroy Aleman, 9th, checks his armband for the play called.

JV Tigerettes

JV Tiger Offense

Brandy Valadez, 10th

Chris Leach, 9th

Hannah Penney, 9th

Perfect Net Play

As the JV-two team plays Rogers, Kylie Sledge, 9th, jumps with high hands to block the setter dump. "Since I'm middle blocker, I have a lot of chances to get a good hit," she said. "The support I get from my teammates after a point is my favorite part of the whole game." With this encouragement from every player, the JV-two team went on to sweep Rogers in 2 sets.

Photo by Chelsea Seggern