

Roasted Lion Before the August 28th game against St. Marks, the first home game of the season, Coach Burk fires up the crowd before setting fire to a stuffed lion. "It was rad seeing Coach Burk getting involved in the pep rallies. Just seeing how fired up he got was a sign of how good of a leader he is," said senior Will Odom.

Black Hand Rallies

Black Hand Rallies during the activities periods before home football games. Whether in the gym or the amphitheater, Black Hand leaders Patrick McGlinchey, Jameson Clay, Max Talkington and Adam Hellinghausen (VIII) did their best to entertain the crowd.

Bane masks, black handprints and back-flipping cheerleaders. Classmate jousting, watermelon smashing, torch lighting. Fall semester wouldn't have been complete without the crazy
