1. Ms. Randi Shaw and Rebecca Gray ('18) show their sorority spirit by dressing up in togas and completing the look with a few accents. 2. Mr. Levi Copley, Mr. Adam Brown, Mrs. Christine Killian, Ms. Randi Shaw, Mrs. Christy Elwell, Dr. Jonathan Campbell, and Coach Stacy Hendrix show their true colors on good vs. evil day by dressing up in villainous costumes. "It was fun being able to dress as myself during spirit week, especially during villain day. The dress-up days were a lot of fun this year. I finally got to twin with my daughter, Karma, be a villain, and dress like Rosie the Riveter. It was nice seeing so many of my coworkers getting into the homecoming spirit along with the students," Elwell said.

"I love participating and being involved in spirit week. It was cool seeing the other costumes that everyone came up with. There were some really neat ones out there."

Dawn Olson ('19)

"I loved seeing people's personalities show through in their costumes. Even the teachers revealed their true selves through their costumes."

Ta'Tionna Mosley ('17)

"I usually don't participate in spirit week, but for my senior year I decided to go all out. It was fun getting to dress up with my friends."

Claire Hendricks ('16)

"Mr. Baty's crazy hair, mad scientist lab coat, and fogged up goggles was by far favorite costumes that week. He made Dr. Emmet Brown look good."

Princess Antonia ('16)

"Every year Mr. Brown dresses up as a Nazi for spirit week and I was really looking forward to it. So I was kind of bummed when Mr. Brown didn't wear his Nazi outfit again."

Trent Miller ('17)

"The sophomore's hallway was my absolute favorite, because I'm a sophomore. #SUPPORT"

Skyler Jones ('18)

"Disney day was my favorite, it took me back to my childhood. Reminiscing on my favorite movies. Plus, I made a great Snow White."

Joey Holtzhus ('16)

"It was really great seeing the amount of creativity in some of the costumes. Everywhere from the amazing spider man to the Queen of Hearts."
