The homecoming pep rally included a new twist this year - black lights for the final performances of the Belles, Cheer and Spirit Boys. Students involved with its production enjoyed the break from tradition, and the event received positive reviews from both students and staff.

Senior Austin Ballard said, "This year's homecoming pep rally was invigorating."

Senior Brady Thomas said, "This pep rally was more exciting."

"It was something fun that we never thought that we'd be able to do, and we were really glad that we were able to provide something different for the pep rally," Belles sponsor Bethany Ralston said, "If they let us do it again next year, it'll be even better."

SENIOR SURVIVAL GUIDE

"Homecoming is always fun, but the one thing that always stresses me out is picking out a dress."

Senior Julia Bahash

1. Don't wait until the last minute to pick out a dress.

2. Go with a guy you like, or go with your group of friends.

3. Don't worry about what other people think and just have fun!
