

4 football q & a's

with Tucker Anderson

Q: What were the highs and lows of your season?

A: "My high for this season overall was simply playing a team sport. A low for the season was that we only won three games."

Q: What was the hardest part of playing tight end?

A: "The hardest part of tight end was keeping everyone out of the backfield."

1. Tucker Anderson strips the ball from the Atlanta quarterback. 2. Ryan Cellars limps off the field with help from his coaches after a hard play. 3. Marcus Burris scores a touchdown against Linden-Kildare.

Q: What makes you proud to be on the team?

A: "I worked very hard, along with the rest of my team, to pass the tryouts, and it makes me proud to be on the team."

Q: What was your favorite highlight of the season?

A: "My favorite highlight was when my team won our first game."
